

Richard Rundle

Despite Meniere's since 1990, Richard had a career that spanned mining, local government, federal government, and World Bank and USAID projects in Afghanistan and Central Asia. He worked in all states of Australia and lived in five states and one territory. He retired in 2012 when deafness and balance made consulting too hard. Richard wears two Cochlear Implants and has a chronic vestibular disorder that effects balance and posture. He lives in Ballarat Victoria.
